

ICY WALKWAY CONDITIONS

January 31, 2018

Please be advised of slippery conditions on community walkways. With the recent high snowfall, rain and overnight colder temperatures, the walkways are extremely slippery and the public needs to use high caution when walking. Please use other sources of transportation if possible. District crews will continue in their efforts to make our walkways safer.

Thank you for your patience and please be careful.