

Notes from Council

Kitimat Council Meeting Summary of Key Items – August 16, 2021

- Council directed staff to review the definition and interpretations provisions contained within the Kitimat Municipal Code, and the identification of permitted and prohibited uses as relevant to the zoning and planning sections of the Code (Part 9), with a view to increasing consistency, clarity and certainty of interpretation, and general user-friendliness.

Proposed changes to the Kitimat Municipal Code will be presented to Council at a future meeting for consideration.

- Council approved the project outline to create the proposed Strawberry Meadows Neighbourhood Plan. The intent of the plan is to create clear and concise plans and policies to guide growth and development in the Strawberry Meadows area. Community engagement opportunities on the plan will begin in September 2021.

Council re-affirmed their support for the proposed Strawberry Meadows bike park.

- Council approved a letter of support for Langley City's motion regarding improvement to the pre-hospital care system that included reference to the impacts of transfer and cross coverage in Kitimat. These concerns will be added as a topic of discussion to the 2021 UBCM meetings.
- Council requested staff report back on the membership opportunity with the BC Social Procurement Initiative.
