

Notes from Council

Kitimat Council Meeting Summary of Key Items – July 4, 2023

Regular Meeting of Council

- Council received a presentation “Past, Present and Future” from the Age Friendly Group.
- Council gave first three readings to Leisure Services Fees and Charges Amendment Bylaw No. 2033, 2023. Bylaw No. 2033 will set the fees and charges for the Leisure Services facilities as of September 1, 2023. The bylaw proposes to increase fees by 4% with the exception of shows/concerts, family admission fees, student admission fees, advertising rates, and park and camping fees. Bylaw No. 2023 will be brought forward for consideration of adoption by Council at the July 17, 2023 regular meeting of Council.
- Council approved a development variance permit application for 82 Meldrum Street to increase the proposed accessory structure from a permitted maximum of 4.9 metres to 6.1 metres (from 16 feet to 20 feet).
- Council approved the 2023-2026 Strategic Plan. The Strategic Plan sets the focus for Council over their term. You can find the 2023-2026 Strategic Plan here.

Committee of the Whole

- Council directed that a bylaw be brought back for Council consideration to amend Council procedure. The bylaw will be considered at a future meeting of Council.
