The Public Hearing was called to receive public comment regarding “Liquor Primary License Amendment Bylaw No. 1905” which amends land use planning, fees and delegation of power to staff in relation to Liquor Control.

The Deputy Chief Administrative Officer introduced the bylaw and stated that it had been given first and second readings on May 1, 2017.

The Chief Administrative Officer provided a short summary of the bylaw.

There were no letters to read into the record.

The Mayor asked for further public input three times. No parties spoke for or against the proposal.

Council provided comments that they would like to see the Public Hearing reconvened on June 26, 2017 to allow the Advisory Planning Commission to comment on the bylaw.

There being no further comments, the Public Hearing was adjourned at 7:35 p.m. and is scheduled to reconvene at 7:30 p.m. on June 26, 2017 at the Kitimat Council Chambers.
